

Hello,

I, seminarian Rob Choate, am writing to you again to thank you for your continued support during these many months and now years that I have been attending the Sem. Your continued patronage is the only reason I can continue to complete my schooling here. I pray that you are well and that the Lord strengthens you each day in the one true faith.

During these last couple months of my Seminary experience I have taken some time to reflect on the gracious gifts that you and our God have blessed me with. I can now confidently preach the word of God. I have gained increased knowledge in my understanding and interpretation of the scriptures. I know our confessions better and the history of our church better as well. You have given me the ability to skillfully and wonderfully share the word of God with our church body in whatever call I receive next month. This place has shaped me spiritually and physically. I met my wife here, I had my first baby here, I learned the word of God here, and soon I will be sharing the gift of the gospel with the world all thanks to your financial help.

Here is a picture of my son Ronnie (now 3 months old)

God's Blessings, Rob
